The Age of Exploration

- Create a resume for one of the well-known explorers from the Age of Exploration. Use the resume format to assist in your research. You will have _____ days to do your research. Write your own discoveries about this explorer on the resume note sheet. This will be your rough draft. The rubric for the resume is included. Strive for the best! The rough draft of your resume needs to be completed no later than _____.
- Rewrite your rough draft into a final draft. Use the correct resume format. This should be completed no later than _____.
- Where did your explorer go on his journey of exploration? Find the route or routes your explorer took on his journey. Use this information to create a cover page for your resume. The cover needs to include a map with arrows that illustrates the route or routes taken by this notable explorer, the dates of each voyage, and a flag that conveys the nationality of the explorer. The deadline for getting the cover page completed is _____.
- Write a cover letter. The cover letter tells an employer why he or she should read the resume and consider the explorer for a job exploring the world. The cover letter should be completed no later than _____.
