

Inuit Report Rubric

3 points	2 points	1 point	Score
Is able to independently write a topic sentence that identifies a key physical, human, or cultural characteristic of the Inuit	Is able to complete a topic sentence that identifies a key physical, human, or cultural characteristic of the Inuit with teacher assistance	Is unable to complete a topic sentence that identifies a key physical, human, or cultural characteristic of the Inuit
Is able to independently write a topic sentence that tells how the Inuit either live, work, or use natural resources	Is able to complete a topic sentence that tells how the Inuit either live, work, or use natural resources	Is unable to complete a topic sentence that tells how the Inuit either live, work, or use natural resources
Is able to independently find resources such as books, CDs, and internet information to research the Inuit	Is able to find resources such as books, CDs, and internet information to research the Inuit with assistance and modeling by the teacher	Is unable to find resources such as books, CDs, and internet information to research the Inuit even with assistance and modeling by the teacher
Is able to write 3 or more supporting detail sentences for the topic sentence from 2 or 3 sources of information (books, CDs, etc.)	Is able to write 2 supporting detail sentences for the topic sentence from 1 source of information (books, CDs, etc.)	Is unable to write a supporting detail sentence for the topic sentence and/or locate sources of information
Content clearly demonstrates knowledge of Inuit culture, history, geography of tundra, or basic needs of the Inuit	Content demonstrates knowledge of Inuit culture, history, geography of tundra, or basic needs of the Inuit with assistance from teacher	Unable to demonstrate in writing knowledge of Inuit culture, history, geography of tundra, or basic needs of the Inuit even with assistance

Total _____