

HEROES....People who make a difference!

What's the difference between a "celebrity" and a "hero?"

A celebrity became famous but is always the big, show-offy person with the fans and autographs. A hero is famous for his good deeds, not for acting in like, a sexy movie or an obscure music video. Nor is it in dancing or singing, as a celebrity is usually about. A hero is looked up to, a celebrity gets attention.

Brainstorm the heroic characteristics Superman uses in the movie...

Characteristic	What he does
ex:
Not a braggart	Quietly leaves the Daily Planet to help Lois
Brave	Hit comet with himself
Selfless	risked himself for town
valour	didn't stop

Brainstorm the villainous characteristics of the mad scientist in the movie...

Characteristic	What he does
ex:
Selfish	Risks lives for an experiment
Rude	Called cops "fools"
Crazy	brought Superman here
Cowardly	ran away from his creation

Brainstorm a list of people/characters you consider heroic:

Batman

Robin

Firefighters

Martha Stewart

Archangel Michael

Choose one from the following words taken from today's reading and create a concept map. Write a definition for the word, then look it up in the dictionary. Write down the dictionary definition. Compare your two definitions.

Words to choose from:

perseverance (pg. 2)

courage (pg. 2)

wisdom (pg.2)

character (pg. 3)

generosity (pg. 11)

loyalty (pg. 11)

Concept map:

Your definition:

Dictionary definition:

HERO...more than just a sandwich

Respond to the following journal entry:

"Every person has a story to tell...and we are all the heroes of our own stories."

It means that people make the story seem like that person is the Hero.

Fighting crime Our own story can be .
Doing a good deed their own hero.
Saving a life Make that person special in some way.
It all seems like your the Hero.

Concept Map:

