

The Inuit Language is different than our language. Their alphabet is different than ours since it is made of different symbols.

The Inuit did not know how to write 100 years ago. So they remembered events by telling stories.

In the Inuit language there are over 17 words for snow. For example, they use the word annik for falling snow.

Inuit means real people.