Pledge of Allegiance

Put the Pledge in order.

One nation,
For which it stands,
To the flag,
With liberty,
Indivisible,
Of the United States of America.

And justice for all.
I pledge allegiance
And to the republic
Under God,

Pledge

Pledge of Allegiance

I pledge allegiance
To the flag,
Of the United States of America.
And to the republic
For which it stands,
One nation,
Under God,
Indivisible,
With liberty,
And justice for all.

Pledge

I

me, an individual, a committee of one.

I

Pledge

dedicate all of my worldly goods to give without self pity

Pledge

Allegiance

my love and my devotion

Allegiance

To the flag

our standard, Old Glory, a symbol of freedom. Wherever she waves, there's respect because your loyalty has given her a dignity that shouts freedom is everybody's job!

Flag

United

that means that we have all come together.

United

States

1 individual communities that have united into 48 great states. Forty-eight individual communities with pride and dignity and purpose; all divided with imaginary boundaries, yet united to a common purpose, and that's love for country.

States

And to the republic

a state in which sovereign power is invested in representatives chosen by the people to govern. And government is the people and it's from the people to the leaders, not from the leaders to the people.

Republic

Indivisible

Cannot break apart

Indivisible

With Liberty

freedom -- the right of power to live one's own life without threats, fear or some sort of retaliation.

Liberty

And Justice

the principle or quality of dealing fairly with others

Justice

For all

which means, boys and girls, it's as much your country as it is mine.

For All

Displaying the Flag

Proper Display

- The flag should be displayed from sunrise to sunset.
- If the flag is displayed at night it should be illuminated.
- Never allow the flag to touch the ground or the floor.
- When displayed on a wall or window the blue field should be in the upper left corner.
- The flag is often flown at half-staff to show respect for someone who has died.
