

Name:

The Presidential Quotation Report
an original lesson found at the WritingFix website

What president will you be researching?

A quote once said or written by this president:
(Be precise when writing the quote down!)

Some researched facts about when/where this quote was said and/or circumstances that would explain why this president said it.
(Don't copy research out of a book...put it in your own words!)

A quote once said or written by this president:
(Be precise when writing the quote down!)

Some researched facts about when/where this quote was said and/or circumstances that would explain why this president said it.
(Don't copy research out of a book...put it in your own words!)

A quote once said or written by this president:
(Be precise when writing the quote down!)

Some researched facts about when/where this quote was said and/or circumstances that would explain why this president said it.
(Don't copy research out of a book...put it in your own words!)

A quote once said or written by this president:
(Be precise when writing the quote down!)

Some researched facts about when/where this quote was said and/or circumstances that would explain why this president said it.
(Don't copy research out of a book...put it in your own words!)

A quote once said or written by this president:
(Be precise when writing the quote down!)

Some researched facts about when/where this quote was said and/or circumstances that would explain why this president said it.
(Don't copy research out of a book...put it in your own words!)

A quote once said or written by this president:
(Be precise when writing the quote down!)

Some researched facts about when/where this quote was said and/or circumstances that would explain why this president said it.
(Don't copy research out of a book...put it in your own words!)