State Report Planning Pages

Name _____

My state is _____

- ❖ Use the following pages to record facts and details about your state according to each heading.
- ❖ Please keep your notes organized and accurate.
- ❖ Use the headings as a guide, but you may include any information that you think is important. Use the books as an idea of what people would like to learn about each state.
- ❖ You may add your own headings too!
- ❖ On the last page, try to locate as many fun and interesting details about your state.
- ❖ The page Titled: bibliography, is where you will list any resources you used to get your facts and details. This includes books, encyclopedias and the internet. All must be cited as references or it's Plagiarism! (that's Illegal)

Introduction
Location, geography, bordering states, climate, ect.

State History

How and when it became a state, early settlement and people, any battlegrounds, war locations, famous historical people, ect.

Economy/ Main and Industry/ Resources

Natural resources, how they make money (Farming, manufacturing, ect.)

People & Culture
What they do, any particular festivals, foods, ect. Population, ethnic diversity, ect.

Government & Politics

State Government: who is the Governor, Senators ect. Any one else we should know?

Fast Facts/ Facts at a Glance

Maybe a list using a bullet points of quick facts at a glance: State capitol, nickname, tree, flower, bird, symbol, animal, ect., you get the idea.

Tourist Attractions

Why do people visit your state on vacation? Where do they go? What can they do there? Any must see attractions? Big cities can be a destination.

Did you Know?

Include any interesting facts or details about your state like: sports teams, famous past or present people, any crazy things that happened in this state, ect.

Bibliography

List any resources you used to get your facts and details. This includes books, the internet and encyclopedias. All sources must be cited as references or it's *Plagiarism!
(*that means stealing information and that's illegal)

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____