

Student
Feb. 26, 1997
Process Essay
Mrs. Chartrand

Planting Gaillardia Wildflowers

First, plant seed 1 in. apart and 3 in. deep in pot.
Then water seeds twice a day.
Next, put plants on a west side window.
Finally, transplant seeds into little holes in the ground.

The Student's Wildflower Company

Student
Feb. 26, 1997
Process Essay
Mrs. Chartrand

Planting angle Blush Wildflowers Directions-

First, plants 1/4 in, under the soil and space the seeds 1 in. apart,
Then keep the seeds in a sunny spot, and water when soil is dry.
Next, watch them grow for two weeks.
Finally transplant them.

COMPANY

Student
Wildflower Seeds